

Monday morning.

Dear Debra

I write merely one line to say that you have done very well in the way of writing & to exhort you to keep on. I shall probably have several opportunities of sending to you this week. I shall write to Gov Francis to night. Maria will tell you all the news, all about Mr Joseph Bates's flogging, Mr Samuel Lord & Sam's non resistance, for it is understood that Mr John Lord took out the writ. Do try to find a decent school for Lizzie for I am much discouraged about her. She & Henry have behaved more like wild spirits than ought else. Do get Lizzie into the way she should go. - Aunt Mary is better as she has been ill. Aunt P. is I think more comfortable, but there is but little chance of seeing her in town. I have finished one of Ma's night gowns. Warren things come by name. Mr Salmon Clapp & Mr Leach's father were buried yesterday. Died of cholera. Sam Lord (the assaulted man) is said to be engaged to Rhoda Stetson. Send every thing you can. Yrs ever Anne W. Weston.

How goes John & the Marks dits.
